R.V. COLLEGE OF ARCHITECTURE Stimulating Current Trends in Architecture Education

Three decade long legacy of RV College of Architecture (RVCA) is rooted in its pedagogical approach of uniting practical learning with academic research and field experience. The studios at both undergraduate (B.Arch) and Master's (M.Arch in Urban Design) level essay a hands-on learning experience that instils academic sensibility in young minds to study, critique and design urban environs. The consistently upgraded curriculum alongside interactive seminars and juries with highly competent faculty, seasoned architects, industry pioneers, artists and researchers ingrain students with the expertise to face current professional challenges.

With creative thinking and experiential learning at its core, the campus facilitates aspiring architects with state-of-the-art digital labs, design and modelling workshop, climatology and survey lab and material museum among others. Latest collaborations fostered with global and national platforms such as ICOMOS, IUDI, UNAI, ISRO and Smart City Compendium provide students and faculty with ample research and teamwork opportunities. Frequent site visits and study trips for learning beyond the classroom alongside social outreach initiatives of NSS Unit and Rotaract Club of RVCA nurture design professionals that exemplify humanity. The Master's Program in Urban Design engages in critical discourse on contemporary urban issues while the Research Centre offers a platform to pursue Ph.D. programs in thrust areas of energy efficiency and green architecture to name a few.

RVCA's uncompromising stance towards encouraging self-driven initiatives set their students and faculty apart, earning them several accolades at international and national competitions. Being propelled into recognition within the profession, students go on to pursue post graduate programs at eminent universities in India and abroad. The Training and Placement Unit and Counselling Cell, GlobeEd at RVCA connects aspiring under graduates with international institutes, resourceful alumni and various architectural and urban design firms across the globe, chalking a roadmap for a future with diverse opportunities.

CAMBODIA, V Semester 2020-25

The temples within the Angkor complex that were visited were the Bayon temple, Angkor Thom, Ta Prohm and Angkor Wat.

The temple architecture in Cambodia is influenced by Indian mythology. The churning of the ocean, Mount Meru, Vasuki, the Devas and Asuras. The naga and the Devas and Asuras are present at the entrance as railings and balustrades in the complex. The shikhara of these temples represents Mount Meru.

- Angkor is one of the most important archaeological sites in South-East Asia. Stretching over some 400 km², including forested area, Angkor Archaeological Park contains the magnificent remains of the different capitals of the Khmer Empire, from the 9th to the 15th century.
- They include the famous Temple of Angkor Wat and, at Angkor Thom, the Bayon Temple with its countless sculptural decorations. UNESCO has set up a wide-ranging programme to safeguard this symbolic site and its surroundings.

- Angkor, in Cambodia's northern province of Siem Reap, is one of the most important archaeological sites of Southeast Asia. It extends over approximately 400 square kilometres and consists of scores of temples, hydraulic structures (basins, dykes, reservoirs, canals) as well as communication routes.
- For several centuries Angkor, was the centre of the Khmer Kingdom. With impressive monuments, several different ancient urban plans and large water reservoirs, the site is a unique concentration of features testifying to an exceptional civilization.
- Temples such as Angkor Wat, the Bayon, Preah Khan and Ta Prohm, exemplars of Khmer architecture, are closely linked to their geographical context as well as being imbued with symbolic significance.
- The architecture and layout of the successive capitals bear witness to a high level of social order and ranking within the Khmer Empire. Angkor is therefore a major site exemplifying cultural, religious and symbolic values, as well as containing high architectural, archaeological and artistic significance.
